Avalue launches dual-display AIO POS touchscreen terminal RiVar

Having won the iF Design Award for its mini POS terminal RiPac-10P1's compactness, excellent operability, and sophisticated and innovative exterior design, Avalue is determined to continue its winning streak with the launch of its advanced version RiVar. While it has kept the POS terminal's all-in-one functions, the greatest change to its exterior is the shift to desk stand from its previous triangular form, allowing users to view the screen at a more ergonomic angle. - read more -
